JAHMIAH FERDINAN -HODKIN

Jahmiah is the founder of Sport Dispute Management. She is a lawyer, adjudicator and risk manager.

Jahmiah has over 15 years of experience as a litigator. Prior to opening Sport Dispute Management, she was a partner at one of Canada's largest firms focusing on sport litigation, professional liability complaints, disciplinary actions, complex multi-party cross jurisdictional commercial litigation and arbitration.

In the sport space, Jahmiah has co-managed one of the country's largest independent third party safe sport programs since its inception. She has administered maltreatment complaints in every Canadian province and territory. She has conducted and participated in hundreds of mediations and has provided reasoned and comprehensive adjudication and investigation services.

From a personal side, Jahmiah is passionate about and has been involved in sport her whole life.
