

Hello! I'm

---

CHRIS LAMBIRIS

Chris Lambiris is a Sports Agent with over 20 years of sports experience from athlete management, coaching, lecturing, and as a former collegiate football player. Chris has represented clients primarily in the NFL, UFC, and CFL, most notably UFC Champion Raquel Pennington and CFL MVP and Grey Cup Winner, Chad Kelly, who he made the highest paid player in 2023. Chris created and lectured the first ever sports marketing class at the University of Saskatchewan business school, and continues to volunteer for the university football team, supporting the front office staff.

Chris is also a practicing Senior Wealth Advisor for the largest publicly owned financial institute in North America. Chris received his MBA from the University of Wyoming and also holds a Certified Financial Planning (CFP®) designation. He is a volunteer Director for the Saskatoon City Hospital Foundation and sits on the advisory board for Scorched Ice, an innovative hockey skate sensor technology startup firm

Sport
Summit